

EXCLUSIVE TECHNOLOGY TO SUPPORT HEALTHY, ACTIVE HORSES

UltraCell® Raw is the hemp-derived CBD oil that can be used to support the optimal levels of health for your horses. Our recommended serving size is based on the weight of your horse.

Horses struggle with many issues revolving around abnormal muscle, bone, and joint stresses as well as unease or hyperexcitability, gastrointestinal upset, metabolic-endocrine disorders, and immune system disorders. Many may see positive benefits from the cannabinoids, terpenes, flavonoids, amino acids, minerals, proteins, and vitamins found in quality full spectrum hemp CBD oil like UltraCell® Raw.

Place in the "gutter cup" of the lower lip or at the corner of mouth where lips meet. UltraCBG™ serving suggestions are the same as UltraCell® Raw; using both may enhance endocannabinoid system functions.

* Always start low initially. If you don't see desired results, gradually increase the serving size. Do not exceed the maximum serving size. Always consult your veterinary provider prior to use.

If you show competitively please check with your governing bodies and associations before using supplements containing CBD as some consider its use "illegal" and disqualifications and fines could ensue.
